"Strategic Egyptian-German partnerships have produced remarkable achievements"

by Helene Rang

H.E. Dr. Mohamed Shaker El-Markabi, Minister of Electricity and Renewable Energy of Egypt

On 26th January 2021, NUMOV / the German Near and Middle East Association hosted a conference focusing on renewable energy in Egypt. Numerous German and Egyptian representatives attended the event, discussing the wide range of possibilities that Egypt offers as a producer of renewable energies and green hydrogen. The discussion featured speeches by H.E. Dr. Mohamed Shaker El-Markabi, Minister of Electricity and Renewable Energy of Egypt, H.E. Dr. Ahmed Mohamed Mahina, Deputy Minister of Electricity and Renewable Energy of Egypt, H.E. Khaled Abdelhamid, Ambassador of Egypt to Germany, and H.E. Andreas Feicht, State Secretary at the German Federal Ministry of Economic Affairs and Energy, moderated by H.E. Bernd Erbel, former German ambassador and Member of the Advisory Board of NUMOV.
