UAE President Concludes Landmark First State Visit to Germany

H.H. Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, President of the UAE and Ruler of Abu Dhabi

H.H. Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, President of the UAE and Ruler of Abu Dhabi, completed his first official visit to Germany after becoming Head of State, which constitutes the first-ever state Visit by a UAE President to Germany. H.H. Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed had personally visited Germany before, but not as President. He was accompanied by a delegation of senior government and business representatives. The delegation included figures such as H.H. Sheikh Abdullah bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs; H.E. Dr Sultan bin Ahmed Al Jaber, Minister of Industry and Advanced Technology; H.E. Dr Thani bin Ahmed Al Zeyoudi, Minister of Foreign Trade; H.E. Mohamed bin Mubarak Al Mazrouei, Minister of State for Defence Affairs; H.E. Ali bin Hammad Al Shamsi, Secretary-General of the Supreme Council for National Security; and H.E. Ahmed Alattar, UAE Ambassador to the Federal Republic of Germany, who accompanied and supported the visit to Germany.

Germany has maintained a consistent trade surplus with the UAE in the past. In 2025 it rose by around 14%, amounting to around EUR 13.6bn annually, while German imports rose by
